SURPRISE NIGHT AT MARION GRANGE

The curiosity about "Surprise Night" at Marion Grange ended when it was disclosed by Mrs. Edna L. Borden, past Pomona Lecturer, and Mrs. Martha Briggs, Marion Lecturer, that they had planned a "This is Your Grange Life" program, with Ennis Newell the guest of honor. The history was read by Mrs. Borden, together with congratulatory letters from the State Grange Master, Arthur F. Thompson; State Overseer, John E. Johnson and State Lecturer, Mrs. Marion L. Johnson. Mr. Newell has been treasurer of Marion Grange 21 years, and gatekeeper of Sippican Pomona Grange the same length of time.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell were married 62 years ago in Shelburne, Nova Scotia. Their five children and grandchildren were invited guests. The master of Marion Grange, Mrs. Anne Bower, is a daughter. Others are Mrs. Albert M. Faunce of Fairhaven, Mrs. Lois Stringer and Bradford Newell both of Wareham and Clyde Newell of New Bedford. Mr. Newell was escorted to the stage by Joseph Bradford, who was recently appointed a State Grange Deputy. Mrs. Newell joined him there, escorted by Miss Rose Pierce, a charter member of Marion Grange.

State Grange officers present were Norman Northwood of Orleans, Samuel Stone of Watuppa, Leland Perry of Pocasset and Joseph Bradford of Middleboro.

Past Sippican Pomona Masters present were J. Newton Barrows, first master; Henry T. Howard, second master; Ralph W. Tripp, Gilbert N. Collins, Carleton F. Vaughan, Charles

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

In times of great trouble this country of ours has been blessed with leaders of such moral fibre and courage that they grow ever greater when viewed from the prospective of history. Abraham Lincoln is known and treasured by free men, not only in the United States but around the world. He is a giant among the great men of all time. Lincoln was not only a great President in the most trying period of our history, but he was a magnificent human being. There are thousands of Lincoln stories, and one that I like illustrates the humor and quick wit of the man. In defending a man charged with assault and battery while practicing law, Lincoln won the case by telling a dog story, after the testimony had clearly proved that the plaintiff, although getting the worst of it in the end, had started the fight.

"But your client could have protected himself without half-killing mine," retorted the lawyer who was opposing Lincoln.

"That reminds me of a story," said Lincoln. "A man who was attacked by a farmer's vicious dog killed the brute with a pitchfork.

"'Why did you kill my dog? Why didn't you defend yourself with the other end of the pitchfork?" demanded the angry farmer.

"'Well, why didn't the dog come at me with his other end?'"

Perhaps no story is so much a measure of the man as the one about the letter which he wrote to Mrs. Bixby of Boston. When he learned that this lady had lost five sons in battle, Lincoln, burdened with duties and cares, took the time to write this letter. It is so tender in sentiment, so exalted in spirit and so perfect in form that it will live as long as his Gettysburg Address.

"Executive Mansion,
Washington, D.C.
"November 21, 1864

"Dear Madam: I have been shown in the files of the War Department a statement of the Adjutant General of Massachusetts that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle.

"I feel how weak and fruitless must be any words of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming. But I cannot refrain from tendering you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the Republic they died to save. I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours, to

COLORED MOVIES SEEN AT WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

Colored movies of the beautiful thoroughbreds and events at the National Morgan Horse Show in 1959 were shown by Mr. Henry B. Smith to members of the Rochester Woman's Club at the February meeting. Also shown were films of Mystic Seaport, Mystic, Connecticut, which is the home of the last of the old whalers, the "Charles W. Morgan". Views of the Morgan, which is a major attraction, and interior and exterior shots of the various buildings in the recreated seafaring community of Mystic Seaport were enjoyed by the members. An interesting sidelight was introduced by Mrs. Marian Church, a member of the club, who said that a relative by marriage, Captain Charles S. Church of Rochester, had sailed as master of the Morgan on her thirty-third voyage out of the port of New Bedford on May 10, 1911, and arrived home over two years later on August 9, 1913. This was the last voyage under the ownership of J. & W. R. Wing of New Bedford. On her 32nd voyage, Captain Church sailed her on a return voyage from the west coast of Africa in May, 1909. Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Mrs. Church's sister, has an old desk that the captain, now deceased, gave her that he used on the voyages.

The program, which consisted of three films, with commentary by Mr. Smith, concluded with a local water event, the annual May 30th boat race for youngsters, which starts in Rochester and follows the Mattapoisett River down through Haskell's Swamp to the herring weir at Route 6 in Mattapoisett.

Mrs. Frank T. Howland presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Howland read the report of the First District Director, Mrs. James R. Lincoln, as published for February in the General Federation magazine, "Federation Topics". Mrs. Howland announced that she and Mrs. Everett B. Hardy would be co-chairmen of refreshments for "Parents Night" for the Boy Scouts. Originally scheduled for February 12th, this event has been postponed to Friday evening, February 19th, at 8 P.M.

An open meeting for Rochester residents will be held on February 17th to discuss the articles in the Town Warrant. A member of the Board of Selectmen will be present. Mesdames Greenwood Hartley and Marian Church will be hostesses.

Donations were voted to the First District Director's Fund and the Memorial Forest Birthday Fund.

In answer to a request, it was voted to contribute pastries to the Tobey Hospital Snack Bar during the week of April 4 to 8th.

Mrs. Kenneth Winslow, chairman of the Veterans' Committee, announced that forty-two squares have been completed for the large afghan to be donated to the Veteran's Hospital. Volunteers to work on this pro-

Oh, the comfort, the inexpressible comfort, of feeling safe with a person, having neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words, but pouring them all out, just as they are, chaff and grain together; certain that a friendly hand will take and sift them, keep what is worth keeping, and with the breath of kindness blow the rest away. HISTORICAL NOTE ON FORT

An historic place of interest and especially for youngsters, who always are in the market for their own fort, is Fort Phoenix in Fairhaven, Mass. The fort was originally built in 1778 and was known as Fort Fearing in honor of a local hero of the Revolutionary War. It played a prominent part in the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812. Built of stone with foundations resting on an outcropping of rock ledge the fort and its powder magazines are preserved today. The cannons overlook the bay approach to the mouth of the Acushnet River. Opposite the fort, Palmer's Island divides the river into two channels, one between New Bedford and the island and the other between the island and Fort Phoenix. Because the cannon of that day were neither powerful or accurate enough to cover the far channel between the island and New Bedford, it left an entrance for the British frigates to run through. The early Yankees were ingenious enough to solve that problem by sinking two American ships in the far channel to block it. This left only the entrance directly under the guns of the fort open and it was at point blank range for the guns.

Fort Fearing was captured by the British. They burned the powder, spiked the cannon and then made the mistake of returning to their ships for the night intending to enter the harbor the next morning. The local militia and the citizens of the town worked all through that night dragging another set of cannon by oxen through the woods from inland towns. At dawn the newly mounted cannon banged away at the British ships. From this adventure the fort acquired its new name. Like the mythological bird it had risen from the ashes and so was renamed Fort Phoenix.

As a reminder for many years of local engagements with the British, a remnant of one of the original cannon remains at the fort.

On a brass tablet the Fairhaven Improvement Association has written the following inscription: "Taken from the British at Nassau in 1777, by Colonial Ship of War, Alfred. Placed on Fort Phoenix in 1776. Recaptured by the British and left in the fort spiked and with trunnions knocked off. Afterwards mounted on Union Street for village defense. Placed in the present position in 1883".
